Membership

Membership in the Society is divided into two classes: voting members and non-voting members. Non-voting members do not have the right to vote at general meetings, however they are entitled to receive all notices and other information sent to members and are encouraged to attend general meetings.

Voting members include Board Directors; Honorary Directors; the Co-Founders; CCPA graduates of 2019 and 2020; people who have donated over $25 dollars between June 30, 2019 and the present; and anyone who has applied to the Board for membership and been approved.

Non-voting members include CCPA students, faculty, and staff; and CCPA alumni from 2018 and prior. If you also fit in a voting category, i.e. a member of staff AND a donor, choose the donor

The Canadian Heritage Arts Society gratefully acknowledges the Lekwungen-speaking peoples (also known as the Songhees and Esquimalt Nations), on whose traditional territory the college stands, and on whose home we learn, create, and perform.
